Congratulations Maggie Edel!

Each year the Center for Mission from the Archdiocese offers an essay writing contest for students in Catholic schools. This year our students participated in the contest.

At our school mass on Wednesday, Janine Ricker and Eric Simon from the Center for Mission presented the award for the winning Middle School Essay. Congratulations to our 8th Grader Maggie Edel on earning the highest honor in the essay contest. We are so proud of your accomplishments and cannot wait to see your continued success in the future!

Summer Tutoring Grades K-4

Our very own Mrs. Gilomen is offering tutoring for current K-4 students this summer. This will take place at SDS and can focus on the areas of reading and math. Mrs. Gilomen is trained and certified in the Believe and Read methods, so it will be a seamless continuation of instruction from this school year.

Please read this document for more information. To schedule tutoring time with Mrs. Gilomen, please email her directly.
