Who loves Ice Cream! This Friday, September 15th is our first Marathon Collection Day! If your family turns in $50 or more, each of your children will receive a FREE ice cream cone coupon to The Blast! How does this work? On Friday please send your marathon envelope to school with one of your children (there is only one envelope per family). You should include each child's pledge sheet (filled out) along with their donations. We are working through sending out each family's personalized fundraising link. If you have not received yours yet - please be patient! It is coming. Visit our marathon homepage here for more information: <https://schoolofstdominic.org/special-events/school-marathon/>
