Catholic Schools Week 2024...a Look Back

We had a lot of fun and excitement during Catholic Schools Week! Watch the video above and read the highlights below!

Sunday, January 28th:

Catholic Schools Week kicked off with 10:00 Mass at St. Dominic Church. Many students and staff participated in Mass. Our St. Dominic students were altar servers, lectors, an amazing choir, gift bearers, and ushers.

Monday, January 29th

Our 6th-8th grade students attended the Mass of the Holy Spirit with 7,000 other Catholic School Students at the Xcel Energy Center. Sophie, an SDS 8th grader, carried the St. Dominic School Banner. While at the Mass, our other students continued to prepare placemats for Senior Living Communities.

Tuesday, January 30th:

All students enjoyed a super cool presentation on Raptors. Bob, from the Minnesota Wildlife Center brought with him a hawk and two owls for the assembly! Fifth grade student Wally found the St. Dominic statue!

Wednesday, January 31st:

We had a Patriotic themed Mass. We all wore red/white/blue and wore our new stickers or pins. Classrooms continued to work on decorating their classroom doors with the Catholic Schools week theme: United in Faith and Community.

Thursday, February 1st:

We welcomed Fr. Louie, Deacon Frankie Floeder, Deacon Mickey, Deacon Brother Marcos and Brother Christopher to St. Dominics. We had fun learning about each of their call to religious life. Deacon Brother Marcos taught us a fun way to pray and Brother Christopher gave us a bracelet gift. Third grade student Sadie found the St. Dominic statue.

Friday, February 2nd:

The staff played the the 7th and 8th grade students in Volleyball. And after a closely contested match, the Staff was victorious. Wally and Sadie were awarded their $50.00 Target gift card for finding St. Dominic and classrooms were awarded certificates of excellence for their door decorations. The day ended with Family Bingo!

Saturday/Sunday, February 3rd and 4th:

St. Dominic School hosted an Alumni gathering at Flaherty's after 5:00 Mass. Don Graff, Rosary/St. Dominic School Alumnus and lifelong St. Dominic parishioner was awarded an Alumnus Certificate of Lifetime Achievement! St. Dominic Alumni were recognized by Father Louie at every Mass during the weekend by asking them to stand up to a roaring applause.
